

Hansel and Gretel lived in a forest.

Their father, a woodcutter, was always poor.

Father "We've run out of food. What should we do?"

Seeing her husband sighing, the stepmother said.

Mother "We have no choice but to abandon the children in the remote mountain.

Mother "Otherwise we will all starve to death."

Hansel "Gretel, look at this flower!"

Gretel "It looks like a star! Can I eat it?"

Mother "Kids! Get ready to leave for the mountain."

The next day, Hansel and Gretel followed their parents to the mountain.

Hansel & Gretel "How long do we have to go?"

Father "Hmm... Just a little bit more."

Mother "Over there seems to be a lot of trees."

Father "I'll bring some wood, so wait here."

Hansel and Gretel waited for a long time in the remote mountain, but their father never came back.

Gretel "Hansel... When will father and mother come back?"

Hansel "It's dangerous, so let's get out of here first."

Hansel and Gretel wandered in the dark mountain.

Gretel "I'm scared, Hansel."

Hansel "Don't worry. I'm here with you."

Then a house made of chocolate, sweets and cookies appeared in front of them.

Gretel "Wow, it looks like a house made of cookies!"

Hansel "Gretel, you're hungry, right?"

There must be something to eat."

Gretel "It's really delicious."

Witch "Hey, are you eating my house?"

Hansel "Sorry! I'm so hungry. I'll stop..."

Witch "You must be hungry. Come on in.
There are many delicious cookies in the house."

Hansel and Gretel went into the house.

Witch "Enter the room and stay still!"

Hansel "Be careful, Gretel, this witch may eat people."

Gretel "You mean eating people?"

Then the old woman suddenly spoke with a terrifying face.

She locked Hansel up and made Gretel do hard housework.

Hansel "We should run away from here."

Witch "Gain some weight and then I'll eat you."

The old woman locked Hansel in a prison-like room.

It turned out that she was a witch who ate people.

The witch boiled water in a pot to eat Hansel.

Gretel became anxious.

The moment the witch looked into the pot,

Gretel pushed her back with all her strength.

Gretel "We can't be eaten by this witch!"

Witch "Oh! No!"

Hansel "Gretel, well done!"

Meanwhile, the father was looking for the children.

Hansel & Gretel "Dad! We're here!"

Father "Hansel! Gretel! It's so great that you're back safely!"

Hansel and Gretel returned home and lived happily with their father.
